The Association Purchasing Cooperative Works To Alleviate Family Christian Stores' Shutdown

The world's largest Creation Retail Cooperative begins preparations for a changing retail market.

Orlando, Florida (03/30/2017): The International Association For Creation's Association Purchasing Cooperative is the world's largest Creation Retail Cooperative, representing retail outlets, distribution centers, channel partners, wholesale suppliers, and specialty vendors across America and around the world. Counting retail outlet members in most major metropolitan areas of the United States, The Association Purchasing Cooperative serves much of the U.S. population through traditional storefront experiences and many more via e-commerce solutions.

Noting the imminent loss of Family Christian Stores, The Association Purchasing Cooperative's retail outlet members are making preparations to best serve former Family Christian customers, and meet the demands of a growing Christian retail market, by strengthening their product offerings.

While this loss of competition is not an ideal situation for any participant within our industry, The Association Purchasing Cooperative is committed to maintaining a strong position in the market while ensuring customers can continue shopping for Christian products without interruption.

A spokesperson for The International Association For Creation's, says, "Our team at The Association Purchasing Cooperative is dedicated to continue serving the Christian community. It is our goal to make available quality products that our customers know and love at affordable prices with family-friendly service that honors Christ. Whether our customers prefer shopping in-store or online, we are able to meet their diverse needs. Today, we welcome Family Christian customers to our Association family."
