The International Association For Creation Launches Creation Certified

Helping professionals build trust, gain access, and share Christ.

Orlando, Florida (06/15/2017): The International Association For Creation's accreditation program, Creation Certified, has launched to help professionals build trust with the public, gain access to valuable resources, and have the tools necessary to share Christ in their communities.

Creation Certified candidates can become Biblical Creation Ministry Professionals by passing a two-part assessment series on Biblical Creation and Biblical Doctrine, having earned educational credentials, gained experience, and submitted references.

Upon becoming a Biblical Creation Ministry Professional, leaders can enjoy access to a $50,000 fossil and artifact collection, as well as be part of the leading professional association for Creation and the Biblical Worldview.

You can learn more about Creation Certified at www.CreationCertified.org.

About The International Association For Creation: The International Association For Creation is the world's leading professional association dedicated to advancing the collaborative efforts of creation science ministries and providing resources in local communities that help Christians grow in their understanding of the Biblical Worldview. Founded in 2012 as a prayer gathering of like-minded Christians, The International Association For Creation has grown to sponsor annual regional, national, and international events, train creation missionaries, help establish new creation tours and museums around the globe, ensure media broadcast rights, develop public outreach programs, advocate in the marketplace, and more. The International Association For Creation is dedicated to equipping it's members to impact hearts and minds with sound doctrine and dependable science. Learn more at www.AssociationForCreation.org.
